Ancillary Committees Pathway Map

1. PI Submits Application in ERICA
   - If the application includes Primary Children’s Hospital
     - PCH Review
       - Ancillary committee review must be complete before the IRB review process begins
   - If the application includes cancer patients or data about cancer patients
     - CCIC Review
       - Ancillary committee review must be completed before the IRB review process begins
       - Ancillary approval is required before final IRB approval.
       - Ancillary committee review can be conducted in tandem with IRB review at the discretion of the ancillary committee.
   - If the application indicates data will be collected from radiographic scans
     - RDRC Review
       - Ancillary committee review must be complete before the IRB review process begins
   - If the application includes the UPDB or HRCC
     - RGE Review
       - Ancillary committee review can be conducted in tandem with IRB review at the discretion of the ancillary committee.
       - Ancillary approval is required before final IRB approval.

2. IRB Review

Ancillary approval is required before final IRB approval.